

Ian Tonge win best estate agents in Cheshire for the fourth consecutive year at the international property awards.

The United Kingdom's premier developers, architects, interior designers and property agents gathered at the London Marriott Grosvenor House Hotel on Friday (October 24th). That evening, in the presence of Lord Courtown, chairman of the architecture and interior design panel of judges, the eagerly awaited results of the UK Property Awards were announced.

Stuart Shield, President of the International Property Awards, said, "It's amazing to see the innovation that continues to deliver ever more surprising solutions that not only look good but also introduce beautiful new homes with a very low energy requirement. The awards are also able to highlight the latest techniques in the marketing and presentation of Britain's finest homes.

Sponsored by Rolls-Royce Motor Cars and Gaggenau, the UK Property Awards attracted entries from hundreds of companies across the length and breadth of the UK. Winning entrants were presented with either a 'Highly Commended' or '5-Star' award.

"It's a privilege to receive such interesting work to judge and, with the recent announcement that Rolls-Royce Motor Cars is also sponsoring the awards, this will come as a huge, pleasant surprise to all of our national awards' winners who participated before this announcement was made."

IAN TONGE PROPERTY SERVICES WON THE BEST ESTATE AGENT IN CHESHIRE.

About International Property Awards

Jason Tonge, Director of Ian Tonge Property Services was delighted with the result. He stated "This achievement on our 50th anniversary highlights our dedication to providing the highest possible service. This is now the fourth consecutive year we have won the award, which is a huge achievement and goes to prove to potential clients that our business is able to sustain the mark of excellence that is required to win the awards".

The International Property Awards are open to residential and commercial property professionals from around the globe. Since 1995, they have celebrated the highest levels of achievement by companies operating in all sectors of the property and real estate industry.

The highest scoring 5-star winners from each of the 47 different categories now go forward to represent the UK in the 2014-2015 International Property Awards. They will compete against other regional winners from Africa, Arabia, the Americas, Asia Pacific and Europe to find the ultimate World's Best in each category. The results of the eagerly anticipated 'World's Best' Property Awards will be revealed at a glittering awards presentation ceremony in Dubai on December 4th.

The awards are split into regions covering Africa, Asia Pacific, Arabia, Canada, Caribbean, Central and South America, Europe, UK and USA. The highest-scoring winners from each region are automatically entered into the overall International Awards, which ultimately determine the world's finest property companies.

An International Property Award is a world-renowned mark of excellence. Judging is carried out through a meticulous process involving a panel of over 70 experts covering every aspect of the property business. Main sponsors and supporters include Rolls-Royce Motor Cars, Gaggenau, Smeg and Maybank.

